DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see remarks section, filed May 10, 2006, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 19-20 under 102(b) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Yu (US Patent 5,192,088).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yu (US Patent 5,192,088). Yu discloses a wheeled skate having a plurality of wheels (31) for rolling upon a skating surface comprising a chassis (See Fig. 2) comprising a longitudinal axis and a medial side, and a rotatable brake pad (20) mounted to a brake pad retainer, said rotatable brake pad being oriented to engage said skating surface supporting said wheeled skate when said medial side of said wheeled skate is inclined inwardly, wherein said rotatable brake pad is located exterior to said medial side of said chassis, and said rotatable brake pad rotates substantially parallel with respect to said longitudinal axis of said wheeled skate and independently of said plurality of wheels, when said medial side of said wheeled skate is inclined inwardly; [claim 20] wherein said rotatable brake pad comprises an oval brake pad.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-18, 22-23 and 26-33 are allowed over the prior art.
5. Claim 21 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
